Giacobetti Paul Gallery Presents

Robert Melzmuf

Light Spacious & Free

November 4 - 14th, 2010

Opening Reception
Thursday, November 4th, 6-9pm

Robert's abstract oil paintings combine both accidental and intentional brushstrokes. The scrapes and drips present an air that is light and spacious. The paintings are not abstracted from anything specifically but do have a natural organic feel to them as forms float in and out of the picture space.
